

Divine Intervention

by

Starr Fuentes

To explain the Divine is an impossible task; what I will do is give you my human observations on Divine Intervention. As bishop of over 500 churches where Divine Intervention is practiced, I have insight into, and wisdom about, the process and results. As a teacher of Divine intervention, I know the mechanics.

Divine Intervention is where Source (God, Buddha, higher power) comes through and the physical and the spiritual take action at the same instant to create a miracle. In other words, Divine Intervention is the phenomenon where tumors fall to the floor and/or diseases may go into spontaneous remission.

Divine Intervention may be referred to as the loudest, most specific prayer that can call the forces of nature and heaven together, hand in hand. The most intimate connection that one can have with another being on this planet is to hold the space for a split second of heaven to appear in or for someone. As Source intervenes in a situation, through a minister or healer, the laws of a larger physics come into play. The possibility that the body may return to its natural state of wholeness jumps astronomically. At this moment the physical body may surrender to be used to the fullest by Source as the electric and magnetic energies split. When this happens anything that is not vital to the energetic structure of the body appears outside of the body.

Source intervening in any situation brings up several questions. There are a number of things that need to precede this "Miraculous Event." The minister/healer needs to create the space for the "divine" to manifest. Source needs to be called upon and directed by blending healing wisdom with the power of the divine. The minister/healer needs to "Let Go" of judgment of the condition of the healee, step out of ego, and stay out of the way mentally and emotionally. The healer/minister is the instrument of Source and raises the vibrations of Source by using specific dimensions and emanating a precise hertz frequency.

The healee's state of consciousness, emotional overlays, amount of repressed emotions, and original cause play an important part of the process. No matter how good the energy, until someone's lesson is learned or they totally put their dis-ease into the hands of a higher power, healing comes at its own natural pace or not at all. To create a connection with Source that supersedes most belief systems and most scientific results causes miraculous events.

Miracles come into many packages. The energy flowing into the natural healing process increases as energetic blockages are removed from the subtle bodies and the physical body. When a connection to Source that is as "wide as a pencil" is increased to the size of a "two-lane highway," the possibilities multiply in quantum leaps. At this point in time what scientists call a "singularity" happens. A shift in some states or in all states occurs. The results can be having nothing happen, small cells like grains of sand or rice appearing, or large chunks of matter appearing in this physical plane.

As people move along their personal spiritual path, opportunities present themselves to learn Divine Intervention. This method can only be learned by being in the presence of a teacher who has learned from a teacher in a long lineage of healers. The movement of energies on the planet at this time makes classes like this possible.

In January 1996, I had the privilege of watching the first class of Divine Intervention Facilitators graduate. As I looked around the room and saw 22 people who had changed so much during the year, I started to cry. These people had walked into class as healers, nurses, practitioners, and even an M.D., and now were walking out with the knowledge to do what only Masters could do in former times. These people had watched and learned as tumors had fallen out of people, as cancerous cells had rained out of others, and as MRI reports would come back as “no cancer present” (Spontaneous Remission). The graduates now touch people and hold a place for Source and heaven to appear for their clients. The Lineage has been passed down, again!

Being born to a long lineage of healers and shamans, Starr Fuentes has broadened her knowledge by studying with Masters from around the world. She has over 42 certifications and teaches over 400 subjects. Starr's teachings are purposeful, dynamic and full of life. She leads up to 150 workshops a year, and has published numerous articles and books.

Starr Fuentes can be reached at

936-894-3447

starrfu@aol.com

www.starrfu.com

References Available Upon Request